

Let Me Paint Your Wedding Day!

What is "Live Wedding Painting?"

Simply put, I come to you or your loved one's wedding and paint whatever special moment you'd like me to capture in real time! I bring all my own supplies: canvas, paint, brushes, easel, etc. The custom painting includes a scene of the newlyweds in their favorite wedding moment and all the lovely details of their day!

When that special moment I've been requested to paint occurs (first dance, ceremony exit, exchange of vows- you name it!) I paint fast and take additional reference photos, so I can fully capture the essence of the scene. This is when the painting truly comes to life!

About Laura

Hello friends! I'm Laura, an artist located just outside of St. Louis, MO. If you are searching for a details of your celebration- look no further!

A little about myself, I graduated with a degree in Studio Art in 2013. After a couple years of live painting on the side I left my high school teaching career to pursue art full-time. By this point, I've created hundreds of commissioned paintings and love the people I serve.

"Laura is the definition of a professional artist. She was punctual, so easy to work with and so easy to talk to and truly one of the kindest souls. During our preliminary meetings, it felt like I had known her forever. And trust me when I say that feeling comfortable with your vendors is SO important for having a stress free wedding day. But most importantly, she is DAMN GOOD at what she does. I had her paint our guests' portraits at our wedding and it was, hands down, one of our guests' favorite aspects of our wedding. I will treasure the portraits she did of me and my husband & our sons forever. I would hire her again in a heart beat and I would highly recommend her to ANYONE looking for a live artist. She is truly the best!"
